

David Kasim

DECISIVE, DETERMINED & DEPENDABLE

Hello everyone, my name is David Kasim I'm a CSS1 at Paddington

I've been here for 18 years starting as an operational apprentice in 2005
I have been a union member the vast majority of that time.

I am humbly asking for the opportunity to serve & safeguard our colleagues.

Although I have not been a union representative in any official capacity prior to this I have always found myself helping colleagues, leading by example, and standing by their side in support.

I'm a natural protector and care deeply about the wellbeing of others.

In my role, I'm a persistent hard worker who maintains a high standard, giving 100% all year round.

People describe me as attentive and thorough with a calm, composed voice.

I'm guaranteed to support your right to the safest working conditions.

Consistently proactive in my approach and resilient to the end.

With a proven record of turning ideas into results

Tackling issues head on solving problems with solutions

Rest assured I will commit my full undivided attention from start to finish!
