

WEA LONDON REGION in partnership with the RMT

FREE FILM SHOWING!!

The Navigators

Come and join us for a drink and a showing of the Ken Loach film about rail privatisation.

SPEAKERS - Bob Crow, General Secretary RMT
- Janine Booth, RMT Council of Executives London Transport, and friend of Rob Dawber, the script writer and trade union activist, who died from mesothelioma contracted while working with asbestos on the railways.

DATE - Tuesday 24th July 2012

TIME - 6pm for 6.30pm start - 9pm

VENUE - WEA London Region Learning Centre, 96 – 100 Clifton Street, London EC2A 4TP

Please let Monica know if you will be attending on mgort@wea.org.uk or 0207 426 1976

ALL WELCOME !!

Please note: Places are limited to 80!

Supported by London Hazards Centre